VISION

The Huidenclub is a new workspace in Rotterdam bringing together artists, designers, and thinkers to form an inclusive creative ecosystem alongside an active public programme. Taking a holistic approach, the Huidenclub provides opportunities to further the careers of its residents while giving them opportunities to collaborate and connect. Situated in a repurposed tannery, this historic space includes studios and co-working desks, in addition to a range of production facilities. Biannual chapters addressing urgent contemporary themes will invite residents and guests to take part in a programme of exhibitions, performances, talks, and screenings open to the broader public.

The Huidenclub is:

- * An inclusive public space accessible to members, guests, and friends where you can enjoy a sustainable local restaurant, open workspaces, a bookshop, and an active programme of exhibitions, workshops, screenings, talks, and performances.
- * A series of creative facilities workshop spaces accessible to our members and guests.
- * A workspace where selected residents have their own studios or access to fixed desks or flexible co-work desks and communal tables while gaining opportunities to present their work and network with other art and design professionals.
